OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Hand-crocheted tablecloth. It has a geometric, snowflake design with six inner inner petals and eight outer petals and is beige in color. Each successive ring of petals is connected by stitching, with an outline around them. Regularly interspersed within the array of large flowers are smaller four-petaled flowers that fill the gaps. Connecting all the snowflakes are many crisscrossing threads.

ORIGIN

Made by the donor's mother.

This is a decorative table cloth used to cover a table and protect it from wear.
