

OBJECT ID	1994.58
OBJECT NAME	Pin
OBJECT ENTITIES	DONOR, FATHER (owned by) Efstathiou, James (is related to) Kolokotronis, Theodoros (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	blue gold Pin Theodoros Kolokotronis White

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

PIN - DEPICTING KOLOKOTRINIS.

Small, blue, gold, and white pin. The pin is in the shape of a circle. Along blue perimeter lined with gold, are the words, "PST O KOLOKOTRONS". The middle portion contains a white background with a gold profile of Theodoros Kolokotronis.

ORIGIN

Theodoros Kolokotronis was a Greek general and the pre-eminent leader of the Greek War of Independence against the Ottoman Empire. In 1825, he was appointed the position of Commander-in-Chief of the Greek forces in the Peloponnese. Today, Kolokotronis ranks among the most revered of the protagonists of the War of Independence. He lived from 1770 to 1843.

CITATION

Pin, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/07/24.