OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Silk identification ribbon with gold fringe and two gold tassels attached to a gold and cream pin bar with the word "member" across it. The ribbon reads "Patriotic Association of Tripolitans "Kolokotronis" organized September 28th 1924, Chicago, ILL." In the center it has an image of a man in a headdress with a mustache. The same wording is also printed on the back on black fabric and in between the two there is a tag that reads "Geo. Lauterer Co.--Badges, Banners, Flags, Buttons, Society Regalia and Supplies. 9 N. Franklin St." Tripolitans established an organization which they called "Theodoros Kolokotronis." It has enabled the Tripolitans to associate with one another and do many things for their country.
