

Jenex, March 22, 1973.

Dear Day,

I am very happy that you are Jewish. Of course I cannot understand religious practices, foundations etc., etc., but it has taught me a lot. I found in my life that the son of God, Jesus are the salt of our earth. And therefore, in my life, 2-3 Jews whom I love truly -

Now your visits and places look to me wonderful.

Allow me, please, to summarize:

1. We shall meet in Athens on June 20 at your hotel (Olympic Palace). I prefer not to come to the airport, because of my very busy time in Athens -

But, if you wish it'll be happy to stay with you to the cocktail party and dinner -

I will only show tell you my address in Athens - As a matter of fact I have not yet decided where I'll be staying. Maybe alone, in a friendly flat, maybe with some friend -

2. If I see you at the hotel in the time for our wonderful flight, June 28. It still seems to me that I mean - You is an American friend who agrees for me the visit of the so long - long awaited hand of my paternal ancestors -

3. I'll be totally at your disposition in Athens - Your interpreter, and a CLE your guide - but just one archaeological problems - of course you know it's the time of

4. I'll be happy to have my researcher (through your agent) you from intended to Athens on July 6th at 4-30 pm - In this way I'll be not disturbed by
