Voula July 21, 1992

My dear King,

After a wiffy bronchitis, in Greece, here I am, sent to the airport of Athens surrounded by pers and etc. here but a very hot summer, having shot our arms (the flat) sticks in the paper in the land and makes writing an almost impossible task.

Although I very often think if you and am really happy for our meeting after so many years and with different lives as ours (what an English!!)

The Greek in France. I suffer and all of us are suffering with our neighbours who resolutely want to take some more Greek islands etc etc. - But I would explain to you this situation. I sent you yesterday 3 issues of the Cyprus Bulletin, please, read the first, he please, kindly send me the address of the Germans. I want so much to send him the Cyprus Bulletin, so that he may better understand what is happening in Cyprus - and all the dangers which come to us from Turkey.

I hope all the group is enjoying their home and their cottages. Looking at the photos and drawing over the books, great or charming places we should under your guidance.

Please, give my best regards to your husband and keep for me my love
