

Well, I send you my love Greta, May 5, 1928 and of last week day ff.

Dear, dear, dear Ray, I am trying to answer at once your long letter which, as always, gave me great joy but also, knocked me bitterly on my stomach!
(What an English! Please me, please!) What do you read and write now? That the Cyprus Government treated the Palestinian Governor to be loved? They were sentenced to death, and we all are very angry at their stupidity because they killed a real Palestinian friend and a great friend of Cyprus too.
Lebanon was an extraordinary Egyptian, every body who knew him loved and honored him. But Egyptian was obliged to follow what the international at law and not to lead over the Governor to death. Was able to any one to land in Cyprus and count a justice of his own. Small minorities have to follow and respect laws. Other wise they are lost. Please, try to read Stern's books, the wrong horse. Although he says half the truth you will see how the C.P. under leads in Greece. Did what about Cyprus? Where Germans and Moslems are for years now to overthrow everything, completely and absolutely, just because one of the last hardest leaders of our century and now Kyprianos!! We have, alas, the people against the British interference in Cyprus, but we have to keep silent. Now they are also plotting in the Cretes!! Unbelievable but true!
You surely know how much I love Israel, but I love it at all the exiled Jewish Bore. I think Sabat was marvellous when going to Jerusalem. All of us could and hoped peace would at last come.
Now let me thank you for the newspaper. How wonderful you are, you and your dear husband! For all the things you have so well tried every thing! I really miss you! c - 60 m
