OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Copper ceremonial bell attached to long knit orange cords with large pom-pom-like endings with fringe. The long cord of woven/knit orange yarn is tied to the base of the bell. The copper bell has a long clapper still attached inside. It is part of a set and is almost identical to its mate (2004.5.45.B).

ORIGIN

This was previously owned by Helen Gravenites. Bells are most likely ceremonial; used for dances or perhaps decorating animals.
