Mykonos Windmill
 Mykonos Windmill
 print

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white print of Mykonos Island. There is a thin strip of buildings protruding into the sea. Between this strip and the front of the print, there are a number of boats that appear to be rowboats. There is a beach along the picture at the left, as well as many two story buildings. In the back of the island, there are three windmills. The background of the print consists of a mountain.

ORIGIN

Tourism is very prominent in Mykonos. It has the nickname of "The island of the winds." Windmills are a defining feature of its landscape.
