

OBJECT ID	2006.13.1
OBJECT NAME	Sifter, Flour
DATE CREATED	1912
MATERIAL	Metal
OBJECT ENTITIES	Manufactured, (created by) JANET PAPPANDUROS, JOHN (owned by) Zaverdas, (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	baking Sifter

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Bromwell's measuring sifter. Made in USA, measuring increments with handle that turns and a stationary handle also. Silver tin color. The knob at the end of the turning handle is wooden. There is engraving lettering on the outside of the tin. The strainer inside is fully attached. There are several rusting areas.

ORIGIN

Used in 1912 for baking by John and Janet Pappanduros, parents of Gust, Steve, and daughter Bessie. John and Janet came to American in 1912 with their three children. Antigone is donor's father/mother?

CITATION

Sifter, Flour, 1912, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/19/24.