OBJECT DESCRIPTION

The front is a drawn portrait of a couple standing together. The woman is looking at the man's lapel, helping him fix it. She is wearing a long blue dress, a green shawl, and a gold tiara in her hair. The man is in a suit with a pink and red tie. He is looking at the woman and they are holding hands. In the background behind the man is a blue and gold chair and behind the woman is a gold column with flowers on the top. The back has a message written in Greek and has been translated as "Mr. Kosta, some time ago I sent you a card for your name's day but I did not recieve a reply. I am now letting you know that I am in Samos because of the wars and in 10 days I will be leaving for Athens. Greetings from a family friend (lady) Sarafi (last name)."
