

-
-

Object ID

2001.34.5

Object Name

Bottle

Material

Aluminum; Glass

Object Entities

Kalamata, Greece (created by) Frangos, fSteve (is related to)

Access Points

bottle
Calamata's Distilleries Union LTD
glass
ouzo Potocal

Object Description

Glass bottle of Greek Apertif, Protocal Ouzo, White and Blue paper label with Greek and English writing

Origin

Ouzo is an anise-flavor appertif, popular in Greece and Cyprus. Modern Ouzo distillation became popular in the 19th century after the celebration of Greece Independence. This particular brand of Ouzo is from Calamata or Kalamata, Greece which is the second most populous city in Peloponnese.

Citation

Bottle, National Hellenic Museum,
<https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 10/05/22.

□