ORIGIN
From St. Nectarios Greek Orthodox Church in Palatine, IL. St. Nectarios was first established in 1974, and in 1976 the church building opened. In 1983, a new church building was built to accomodate the growth of the church. A community center was later built in the 1980s. Throughout the years, St. Nectarios Greek Orthodox expanded its services to include Sunday school, Greek school, and other programs.

Chair possibly made by church parishoner Raymond Philley
