

OBJECT ID	2012.35.1
OBJECT NAME	Blanket
MATERIAL	Yarn
OBJECT ENTITIES	Farlekas, Georgia (is related to) Katherine, (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	Sparta, Greece

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A 100 year old blanket made by the donors mother. It is a green, yellow, a maroon, and a light red with yellow plaid blanket. On the two ends it is a small green border that is made of a group of stitchings in small circles along the edge. There is a seam along the middle where the two pieces were put together.

ORIGIN

Georgia Farlekas was born in Sparta, Greece and came to the US when she was three years old. The blanket was made by her mother-in-law, Katherine, 100 years ago in Greece. It was given to Georgia when she married the son of the creator 58 years ago.

CITATION

Blanket, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/18/24.