OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A certificate of recognition and appreciation to Demetrius N. Karalis. It is in a black wood frame and the paper is a cream color. There is a black border that has elaborate designs and a bigger design in each of the corners. On the top there is a gold stamp that has a picture of North and South America with a cross in front of it with a circle in the middle of that. Around that there are greek symbols. Under that in black ink it reads, "The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of North and South America presents this Certificate of Recongnition and Appreciation to Demetrius N. Karalis Past President of St.Mary's Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota on this 12th day of May in the year of Our Lord 1968." On the bottom right corner Iakovos, the Archbishop of the Greek Orthodox Church of North and South America, signed his name. In the middle ther is a blue wave design that fades the further out it gets.

ORIGIN

The donors grandfather, Gus Gianakopulos, came to America with 200 youths from the Sparta area around the time of 1881. Mr.Chaconas was in charge of the trip and when they arrived in Chicago all 200 of them were put in one room together and bought each one of them a push wagon. The group of people would sell one product a day using their push wagons. In 1893 the Gus became a US citizen and was working in the fruit and vegetable wholesale business. He later went back to Greece to visit but called the US his country. In 1900 a few men went back to Greece to get married and on their way back they brought the donors grandmother, Georgia, to Chicago, where her father and brother were. Gus and Georgia got married in December 1901 at the Holy Trinity Church and they invited all Greeks and the story is that there were 98 carriages that attended the reception. They had several children, first a boy then a girl named daisy, then the donor's mother Pauline, next were two sisters, Virginia and Eleanor, and last was John. The Spartans in the area started a church in a building on South Water Street, but the priest had decided to go back to Greece. In 1908-1909 they built what is now the Annunciation Cathedral on LaSalle Street and in 1910 the church was completed. This church is where the whole family was baptized, married, and buried. The family lived on the north side of Chicago so any Greek schools were too far away for them to attend so a greek teacher came in Monday, Wednesday, and Friday for 25 years. The donors mother, Pauline went to Forest Academy to studied dress design and not much after that she met her husband and moved to Minneapolis in 1929. The two worked and helped out the church they were members of quite a bit. They traveled a lot and often went to Greece but in 1970 he passed away. They had two children, George and Elena and after her husband passed away Pauline and Elena went on many different trips around the world.
