OBJECT DESCRIPTION

This letter was donated by Gregory Zafros from a collection of his family memorabilia from his mother's estate. The letter is on worn paper and some of the writing may have faded away. The text is in handwritten Greek. The subject of the letter is as follows: the sender is wondering if the receiver had received the $5 that the sender had previously sent.

ORIGIN

This letter was donated by Gregory Zafros from a collection of his family memorabilia from his mother's estate. His father's family name is Zaferopoulos and his mother's family name is Salopoulos Gregory Zaphos also donated this letter and envelope with a medal (2012.49.1). The two do not seem connected even though he found them together.
