

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| OBJECT ID         | 2013.1.234                                                                                                                                                                       |
| OBJECT NAME       | Sheet                                                                                                                                                                            |
| OBJECT COLLECTION | Celia's Textile Collection (is part of)                                                                                                                                          |
| DATE CREATED      | January 28, 2013, 1930 – 1960                                                                                                                                                    |
| MATERIAL          | Cotton                                                                                                                                                                           |
| OBJECT ENTITIES   | Kachmarski, Celia (owned by)Kachmarski, Celia (is related to)Guigulis, Cleo (is related to)guigulis, Barootes (is related to)Barootes, Anastasia (is related to) |
| ACCESS POINTS     | doilyhousehold accessorytextile                                                                                                                                          |

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

White, hand embroidered, sheet. The sheet itself is machine made. Hand embroidery is in all corners and in the center. In each corner there are two flowers and vines that make an L shape. In the center there is 6 flowers and vines that make up an oval. In each flower there are polka dots.

ORIGIN

Donated on behalf of Cleo and Barootes Guigulis by Celia Kachmarski. The hand embroidered doily was made by the donors mother Anastasia Barootes, circa 1930-1960.

CITATION

Sheet, January 28, 2013, 1930 – 1960, Celia's Textile Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 09/12/26.