OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Piece of tan, felt-like material. Blueprint for never-made slippers. The piece of felt-like material is in an "L" shape, roughly. On each stem of the "L", there is a pencil drawn blueprint in the shape of a slipper pattern. The slipper pattern is shaped like a rounded "A". Within the pencil drawn lines, are embroidered flowers. The flowers are dark and light purple in color, and the leaves paired with the flowers are light and dark green in color.

ORIGIN

For full family history, see donor file

This blueprint was hand-stitched by Katherine (Hadzi Vasiliou) Emmanuel, the grandmother of donor Cleo C. Venetos. Katherine was preparing to make slippers for her husband, but never finished.

Katherine immigrated to the United States in August of 1920, through Ellis Island, NY, accompanied by her soon-to-be husband's cousin. Katherine married Andrew Emmanuel in their Pullman, IL home on September 26, 1920.
